J. LOUIS CRIBBS, Senior Contract Administrator, Northrop Aircraft Company, Hawthorne, California, advised as follows on February 27, 1969:

He has known ANDREW LOCOCO for many years. They became acquainted when Mr. CRIBBS occasionally ate lunch at LOCOCO's restaurant prior to the erection of the new Cockatoo. Mr. CRIBBS and a friend interested LOCOCO in hunting and fishing and for the past several years, LOCOCO has accompanied them on hunting and fishing trips. These trips include three or four Mexican fishing parties.

Mr. CRIBBS stated they have, in the past, travelled to Punto Chivato, Baja, California and fished the Gulf of California. They have stayed at the Barrego De Oro Hotel when in Punto Chivato.

Within the past several years, LOCOCO and [redacted] have purchased land in [redacted]

b6
b7C

LA 92-357

Punto Chivato. They planned to erect a vacation house on the property. LOCOCO, however, backed out of the venture and [ ] has built the structure on his own. Mr. CRIBBS saw the structure prior to its completion. It is a large structure, possibly several thousand square feet, with several out buildings. It is not, however, large enough to be a motel or casino in the opinion of Mr. CRIBBS.

LOCOCO at one time owned a small 16 or 18 foot outboard motor boat, which he kept at San Filipe, Baja, California. However, in a recent storm, the boat was destroyed.

Mr. CRIBBS stated he has no knowledge of any business interests LOCOCO has in Mexico. He admitted that LOCOCO has travelled to Mexico in the company of persons other than CRIBBS, however, LOCOCO usually contacts him before he goes down or after he returns and tells him what success he had in fishing.

b6
b7C

CRIBBS is aware of LOCOCO's interest in commercial fishing. LOCOCO has mentioned that he is investigating the possibility of obtaining a U. S. Government loan for the purchase of a fishing boat. CRIBBS understands that the boat, if obtained, will fish the Caribbean area.

Mr. CRIBBS stated he has heard many rumors concerning LOCOCO's alleged illegal activities in bookmaking, prostitution and narcotics. However, he has never seen anything or heard LOCOCO say anything which would substantiate these rumors in any way.

He stated that the name of [ ] is not familiar to him. [ ] has never accompanied Mr. CRIBBS and LOCOCO into Mexico and LOCOCO has never mentioned the name of [ ] to him.

ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO
ANTIRACKETEERING
RESEARCH (CRIME RESEARCH)

On 5-19-69 [ ] Legislative Assistant to Congressman Glenn M. Anderson, contacted the Bureau relative to Andrew Lococo, identical with Los Angeles file 92-357. [ ] said that Lococo had made an application through the Department of the Interior for a loan to buy a commercial fishing vessel and that after encountering a delay had been told the Department of Justice was holding up the application.

b6

[ ] was advised that the FBI had no responsibility in connection with such matters and could not be responsible for any delays. He thereafter asked whether the FBI had any information regarding Lococo at which time he was told of the departmental regulations regarding the confidential nature of FBI files and that accordingly no information could be furnished as to whether we did or whether we did not have any data regarding Lococo.

The foregoing is furnished for your information regarding the Congressman's interest in this matter since Los Angeles report dated 3-29-63 contains results of an interview with Lococo at which time Lococo claimed to be an old and dear friend of then Lieutenant Governor Glenn Anderson.

At about 1:00 p.m., 5-19-69, [ ] Legislative Assistant to Congressman Glenn M. Anderson, telephonically contacted Inspector [ ] on the instructions of the Congressman. He said that one of the Congressman's constituents, Andrew Lococo, had applied for a loan through the Department of the Interior to finance a professional fishing boat. Approval of the loan has been delayed and Lococo has been told that it is being held up by the Department of Justice. [ ] told [ ] that the FBI has no jurisdiction in such matters and no responsibility as to approval or denial of such loans. [ ] was persistent in asking if the FBI was responsible and was finally told that a check would be made of our records to see if in some way we were involved in this matter.

[ ] called back in about two hours just after Bureau files concerning Lococo had been obtained. He was told that the original information given him was correct and that the FBI had nothing to do with loan applications of this type. He then asked if the FBI had any information concerning Lococo. He was told of Department regulations concerning the confidential nature of our files and that it was not possible to either tell him that we do or do not have information pertaining to Lococo. It was suggested that since this was a Department of Interior matter he should deal with that department, or, if he felt the Department of Justice was involved, he should deal with them but that the FBI was not the proper agency.

Bureau files indicate we have had an Anti-Racketeering investigation regarding Lococo since 1961 and the Los Angeles Office is office of origin. Lococo, although not proven to be a member of La Cosa Nostra, has numerous close associates who are in that organization. Lococo originally went to California from Wisconsin and is known to be a friend of Frank Balistreri, boss of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra family. Lococo has been in the restaurant business for a number of years but also is alleged to be involved in gambling, narcotics, and prostitution although he has never been arrested for such activities. In 1938 he was sentenced to 3 years for attempted burglary and in 1940 was sentenced to 6 months for larceny and violation of probation. An informant advised that Lococo

Congressman Glenn M. Anderson was newly elected to Congress this term. CONGRESSMAN GLENN M. ANDERSON
(D - CALIFORNIA)

b6
b7C

My memo of 5-20-69 sets forth details of contact by Congressman Anderson's Legislative Assistant relative to Andrew Lococo who had applied for loan through Department of Interior to finance fishing boat. Bureau files indicated Lococo under investigation since 1961 because of close associates in La Cosa Nostra and allegations that he had been involved in gambling, prostitution, and narcotics. <sup>been</sup> FBI had not been contacted by Department of Interior relative to Lococo but it was learned that the Department's Organized Crime Section had received such inquiry and had furnished Interior with information re Lococo.

Anderson requested to see Inspector [redacted] personally today and was contacted in his office. [redacted] his Legislative Assistant, was also present. The Congressman said that the Department of Interior had denied Lococo's loan application and that he (Anderson) had decided not to pursue the matter further on behalf of Lococo. Lococo, however, assured him that he was not engaged in any activity nor did he have anything in his background which would reflect on him so adversely that it would preclude this loan. The Congressman said this placed him in a very bad position since he did not know what to do to check out his constituents, friends, and political supporters. He said he wouldn't want to be involved with any unsavory people in any manner and had hoped that the FBI could help him avoid such entanglements. He admitted he had known Lococo since 1952, had accepted his political support and considered Lococo a friend. He said that he believed Lococo when he claimed that he had nothing in his background of a derogatory nature other than an old arrest about 20 years ago.

[redacted] repeated to the Congressman the Department's policy with regard to the confidential nature of our files and pointed out further that it certainly would not be desirable for the FBI to be used as a clearinghouse to characterize the friends and associates of Members of Congress. He repeated to the Congressman that we could not advise him whether we did or did not have information re Lococo but assured him that we did not in any way clear or deny applications of the type involved.

There are not enough significant defects to permit a determination as to whether the typewriting on Q1 was prepared on the typewriter used to prepare the known samples designated as K1. It is pointed out, however, that the style of type is the same.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at Salt Lake City, Utah:

On July 17, 1969, an individual who gave his name as [redacted] telephonically contacted the Salt Lake City Office of the FBI and stated that his call was from New York City. He advised that he had been informed by [redacted] that the FBI had been inquiring concerning one ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO, and [redacted]

b6

[redacted] advised that neither of these names were familiar to him and he therefore, had no information concerning either of these individuals.

An address and place of contact was requested from [redacted] and he advised that he was often in a travel status and he therefore, could not furnish any place of contact. He declined to furnish a residence address or other method of contact. He stated he expected to be in the Salt Lake City area within a few days and at that time he would contact the Salt Lake City Office of the FBI so that arrangements could be made for a further contact, if such was necessary. No subsequent contact was made by [redacted].

[redacted] Trans World Airlines (TWA), Los Angeles International Airport, who resides at [redacted] advised as follows:

He has known ANDREW J. LOCOCO for seven or eight years. Many TWA dinners and luncheons are held at the Cockatoo Inn. He sees LOCOCO about once or twice every month at the Cockatoo.

Since about 1962, LOCOCO has been one of several persons who have accompanied [redacted] to Baja California, about once every year to hunt and fish. Other persons who have traveled with [redacted] and LOCOCO are [redacted] TWA Supervisor, and [redacted] TWA Pilot.

[redacted] as well as [redacted] owns his own twin engine aircraft. Usually one of these planes is used in flying to Baja California. Generally the party hunts and fishes in the area of Cabo San Lucas, which is located on the Southern tip of Baja California; south of La Paz. These flights depart the Los Angeles area from either Torrance Airport or Van Nuys Airport.

b7C

In January 1969, [redacted], LOCOCO, and several of LOCOCO's friends flew to La Paz via a commercial airliner, and then on to Cabo San Lucas via a chartered plane. LOCOCO's friends were TONY MACHI, Milwaukee, JOSEPH LOCOCO, relative of ANDY LOCOCO, and a person named [redacted], whose association with LOCOCO is unknown to [redacted]. In all his travels to Baja California with him, LOCOCO has never absented himself from the group for the purpose of conducting private business. LOCOCO has never contacted local officials or inhabitants while in Baja California, to [redacted] knowledge.

[redacted] is aware that LOCOCO is a big bettor. He does not know with whom LOCOCO bets. He doubts, however, that LOCOCO is involved in bookmaking as he is around the Cockatoo most of the morning and afternoon.

[redacted] was interviewed on July 23, 1969, at his offices, [redacted]

[redacted] was furnished with a Standard Waiver of Rights Form, which he read and indicated he would not sign. He indicated that he wished to cooperate with the interviewing Agents only so far as he indicated he would cooperate when he spoke with an Assistant United States Attorney in Los Angeles during the past week. He indicated he would be willing to identify the IBM Typewriters in his office by serial numbers and to furnish typewriting samples from these typewriters. He requested the Agents to furnish him with the materials on which the typewriting samples were to be taken and also the text to be used in the samples.

[redacted] was furnished with six 3x5 cards and was requested to have three samples taken from each typewriter with the following text in capital letters:

"I refuse to answer on the ground of self-crimination and my rights under the V Amendment of the U.S. Constitution."

b6
b7C

The above samples were prepared by [redacted] secretary, who [redacted] declined to identify and indicated he did not wish her to be interviewed.

[redacted] declined to furnish a signed statement regarding his voluntary furnishing of the above samples. Each of the above samples was identified with the date, Agent's initials, file number, and serial number of the typewriter, which was placed on the reverse side of the card. A physical examination of the typewriters disclosed one typewriter identified as an IBM Exec., Serial Number 2100277, and the second typewriter was identified as an IBM Exec., Serial Number 41-110235.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 10/21/69

ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO was arrested at his residence 11509 South Acacia Avenue. He was advised that he was charged with four counts of perjury by SA [REDACTED]. SA [REDACTED] advised LOCOCO that he was not required to say anything and anything he would say could be used against him in court. He was advised of his rights to counsel, and in the event he could not afford counsel, one would be appointed for him. SA [REDACTED] also gave LOCOCO a Waiver of Rights form which LOCOCO read and stated that he understood. He declined to sign the waiver.

LOCOCO remarked that his attorney, whose name he did not mention, was absent from the city. When informed by SA [REDACTED] that $5,000.00 bond was recommended, LOCOCO counted out $2,000.00 from his pocket. He called the Cockatoo Inn, 4334 Imperial Highway, Hawthorne, California, a restaurant which LOCOCO owns and operates, and instructed [REDACTED] an employee, to bring him $3,000.00 cash. LOCOCO put the $5,000.00 cash in his pocket, secured by a rubber band.

b7C

LOCOCO instructed [REDACTED] to drive his automobile to the Federal Court House, Los Angeles, and pick him up upon his release by the United States Commissioner.

LOCOCO declined to discuss the perjury matter with arresting Agents.

LOCOCO was turned over to the United States Marshal at the Federal Court House, Los Angeles.

He is described as follows:

Name	ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO
Sex	Male
Race	White
Nationality	American

LOCOCO was freed by United States Commissioner upon the posting of $5,000 cash bond.

On November 3, 1969, ANDREW LOCOCO's arraignment was postponed by United States District Judge CHARLES H. CARR as LOCOCO's counsel JOHN FLYNN of Phoenix, Arizona would not be available. His arraignment was rescheduled for November 17, 1969.

On November 17, 1969, LOCOCO was arraigned at Los Angeles before United States District Judge CARR. Through his attorneys, VICTOR CHARGIN and JOHN FLYNN, he entered a plea of not guilty to all four counts of the indictment. LOCOCO drew Judge H. ANDREW HAUK for his trial.

Later on November 17, 1969, Judge HAUK scheduled LOCOCO's trial to commence at 9:30 a.m. on March 31, 1970.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date October 7, 19691

[redacted] Tacoma Boat Building Company, 1840 Marine View Drive, Tacoma, Washington, advised as follows:

He is acquainted with a man by the name of ANDREW LOCOCO having met him several years ago in San Diego, California when LOCOCO expressed interest in having the Tacoma Boat Building Company build him a commercial fishing vessel. In the early part of 1968, by agreement, LOCOCO flew into the Seattle-Tacoma Airport to spend the day touring the Tacoma Boat Building Company facilities and to further discuss his interest in purchasing a boat. LOCOCO arrived by plane at noon and left by plane in the early evening of the same day. The only other time LOCOCO was in Tacoma was in January, 1969 when he arrived by plane to inspect a fishing boat built by this company. He arrived one morning, stayed overnight and departed the following morning by plane, ostensibly returning to California. [redacted] stated he doesn't know where LOCOCO stayed that one night or whether it was in Tacoma or Seattle. As he recalled, LOCOCO had rented a car and after inspecting the boat on this particular day he indicated he was returning to California the next morning.

b7C

[redacted] stated he has had several phone calls from LOCOCO since that date, the last one being in April or May of 1969. At that time, LOCOCO indicated he was having difficulty arranging for the financing of a boat. [redacted] stated his only association with LOCOCO was for the purpose of building him a boat and he knows nothing about LOCOCO's associates or other activities.

[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed at [redacted]
[redacted] where she is employed as a buyer.

[redacted] advised that she and her husband,
[redacted] stayed at the Cockatoo Hotel, Hawthorne, California, for a week during October, 1968, when she was on a West Coast buying trip for [redacted] [redacted]

[redacted] advised that the Cockatoo Hotel was recommended to her by [redacted], who is also a buyer for [redacted] and who had stayed at the Cockatoo Hotel previously.

[redacted] advised she and her husband arrived at the Cockatoo Hotel on either a Saturday or Sunday evening and had dinner at the Hotel on the first evening they were there. She spent her days in Los Angeles handling business for [redacted] while her husband visited various places in Los Angeles. She said they did not meet the owners of the Hotel and spoke to no one at the Hotel or in Los Angeles regarding [redacted] [redacted] or FRANK SANSONE, whom she does not know. She advised she has not seen [redacted] in the past six months and has had no discussions with him concerning the owners of the Cockatoo Hotel or FRANK SANSONE.

She was aware that the Cockatoo Hotel was owned by two brothers, whose names she did not know, but who were formerly from Milwaukee, as this information was given

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

On April 7, 1970, trial of ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO began before the Honorable Judge A. ANDREW HAUKE, Southern District of California, Central Division, Los Angeles, California. After testimony from numerous witnesses, the government rested its case on April 10, 1970, and on April 16, 1970, United States District Judge A. ANDREW HAUKE found the subject guilty on one count of perjury regarding his testimony before a Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles.

Judge HAUKE ordered a probation hearing and sentencing for May 25, 1970, and asked that the government file a memorandum regarding sentencing regarding the subject. The government complied with the Judge's instructions, and filed such a memorandum on May 20, 1970.

LA 92-357

On May 25, 1970, the subject with his attorney, JOHN FLYNN, asked for an extension of time before Judge HAUK in order to file an answer with the court to the presentencing report submitted by the government.

Judge HAUK granted this request and asked the defense to file their answer by June 11, 1970, and that he would continue the sentencing date for the subject until June 15, 1970.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

On June 15, 1970, ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO appeared before the Honorable A. ANDREW HAUKE, U. S. District Judge, Southern District of California, Central Division, Los Angeles, California, with his attorney, Mr. JOHN FLYNN, present, and was sentenced to five years probation on the condition he serve six months in the County Jail at Terminal Island or at the Federal Community Treatment Center under a work release program if the State Attorney General approved. LOCOCO is also fined $2,000.

LA 92-357

Furthermore, Judge HAUK specified LOCOCO is to pay all court costs of prosecution, which is estimated at $5,563.50.

Judge HAUK denied a motion for a new trial by defendant LOCOCO's attorney, Mr. JOHN FLYNN.

On June 16, 1970, the "Herald Examiner", a Los Angeles newspaper, carried the following article regarding the sentencing of LOCOCO:

Lococo: A Light Perjury Sentence

Hawthorne, restaurant owner Andres J. Lococo has been given a five-year jail sentence, with four and one-half years of the sentence suspended, and fined $200 plus court costs for perjury before a federal grand jury.

Sentence was imposed against Lococo, 51-year-old owner of the Cockatoo Restaurant and Hotel, 4334 W. Imperial Highway, yesterday by U.S. District Judge A. Andrew Hauk.

Judge Hauk denied a motion for a new trial by Lococo's attorney, John Flynn.

Before imposing sentence, the judge said he was "moved" by Flynn's plea for leniency "and by the tears of the defendant's wife and daughter" who were in the courtroom.

Judge Hauk said Lococo could spend six months in county jail, at Terminal Island, or at the federal community treatment center under a work release program if the state attorney general approved.

Lococo was charged with four counts of perjury in his testimony before a federal grand jury June 26, 1969.

Judge Hauk found the restaurant owner guilty of lying to the grand jury when he testified he had not spoken to a man convicted of bookmaking in 1964.

Trial evidence disclosed that in 1968 some 80 telephone calls were made to the convicted bookmaker, Ray Mirr, of Milwaukee, Wisc., from Lococo's residence, his restaurant, and from locations in other cities visited by Lococo.

The light sentence was handed down despite a government request that Lococo be given four years in prison.

Judge Hauk said he was impressed by Lococo's own family's reputation and the number of letters he had received from attorneys and other citizens who testified to Lococo's good character.

Title: ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO has been barred by the California Horseracing Board and the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau from attending races at Hollywood Park, Inglewood, California, and at the Del Mar Track, Del Mar, California. LOCOCO has been barred from these tracks as a result of his perjury conviction, for which LOCOCO was sentenced in the U.S. District Court, Los Angeles, on 6/15/70. This perjury conviction is still under appeal at Los Angeles. Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms Unit, Los Angeles, California, under a search warrant, searched LOCOCO's residence, 11509 Acacia Ave., Hawthorne, California, and were successful in locating two handguns and a deer rifle.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

On August 17, 1970 SA [redacted], Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, (former Special Agent, FBI), advised subject ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO had been asked to leave the Hollywood Park Race Track because of his perjury conviction at Los Angeles. [redacted] further advised that LOCOCO had been ejected from the Del Mar Race Track on August 13, 1970, because he had previously been ejected from the Hollywood Park Race Track after his perjury conviction. [redacted] advised it was his understanding that the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau and the California Horseracing Bureau would attempt to bar LOCOCO from all tracks in Southern California because he is now considered a convicted felon.

92-357

On October 14, 1970, [REDACTED] Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms (ATF) Unit, advised that ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO's residence had been searched by members of ATF under authority of a Federal Search Warrant issued by the United States District Court, Los Angeles, and that this search had been successful in finding handguns and a deer rifle. ATF confiscated these weapons under their search warrant, and a four-count indictment was returned in Los Angeles alleging that LOCOCO, convicted of a felony, perjury charge, June 1970, possessed three pistols, two shotguns, and two rifles in violation of the 1968 Gun Control Act. The indictment also alleges that LOCOCO transported and received a shotgun in interstate commerce.

b6
b7C

On October 29, 1970, LOCOCO, with his attorney present, surrendered himself to the United States Marshal's Office where he posted bond and was released on his own recognizance.

LOCOCO still resides at 11509 Acacia Avenue, Hawthorne, California, and still owns and operates the Cockatoo Inn and Hotel, 4334 West Imperial Highway, Hawthorne, California.

According to [redacted], he had determined the purpose of this stay of the above individuals to be an inspection of progress of the tuna boat being constructed by Peterson Builders, Sturgeon Bay. According to [redacted] [redacted] had plans to spend the entire month of August 1972, in Door County with his own immediate family and to vacation the same time he observed the progress of the tuna boat being built. The boat is approximately three-fourths completed and was tentatively scheduled to sail late fall of 1972.

b7C

On 8/14/72, [redacted], Door County Sheriff's Office, Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, advised the tuna boat, "MARGARET L" was scheduled to be launched from dry dock at Peterson Builders, Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, on Saturday, 8/19/72, at 11:30 a.m. He said the boat would remain in the Sturgeon Bay area for shakedown inspection, as well as other finishing items of construction, and would be in the area until November 1972.

b6
b7C

On 8/16/72, [redacted] advised he had heard from sources at the Peterson Builders that the ship, when it was completely equipped and ready for duty as a tuna boat, would have a land-based helicopter aboard.

Title: ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO surrendered himself to the USM's Office, 12:00 noon, 6/12/72, and remanded into custody of the USM. On 7/31/72, LOCOCO appeared before Judge A. ANDREW HAUKE with his attorney present and petitioned Judge HAUKE for a reduction of sentence. Following this petition, Judge HAUKE reduced LOCOCO's sentence from 90 days to 60 days, and LOCOCO was released from Terminal Island Federal Correctional Institute, San Pedro, California, on 8/18/72. LOCOCO's tuna boat being built at Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, scheduled for launching from dry dock 8/19/72. Tuna ship, the "MARGARET L", will be incorporated in the State of Puerto Rico and will be home ported from the State of Puerto Rico.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

On August 2, 1972, the United States Federal Docket for ANDREW JOSEPH LOCOCO was examined and it was determined that on June 5, 1972, the court received a motion for reduction of sentence.

On July 27, 1972, this petition for a reduction of sentence was filed with the court and was to be heard on July 31, 1972, at 10:00 a.m. This matter was to be heard before the Honorable A. ANDREW HAUKE, United States District Court (USDC) Judge, Los Angeles, California.

On August 22, 1972, [redacted] Terminal Island Correctional Institute, advised that LOCOCO had completed his prison sentence on August 18, 1972, and was released on that date. He advised while LOCOCO was in custody, he was assigned as a dormitory orderly and stayed in the medium custody facility. He had number 16393 assigned while at the facility. b6 b7C

By communication dated July 31, 1972, the Chicago Division advised as follows:

[redacted] United States Coast Guard (USCG) Marine Inspection Office, Chicago, advised on July 28, 1972 that his office has no official record or request regarding the "MARGARET L" and the records of the Documentation Section failed to contain any information regarding this vessel. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated he knew which ship was indicated, since this is to be the largest "fishing" boat in the world, and is more aptly referred to as a ship. He was in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, during the middle of June 1972, and the vessel was on the way under construction. He said it is safe to assume this vessel will not be ready for another month or two. [redacted] also commented since this is a fishing vessel, it is not bound by the same regulations as other types of commercial crafts. The USCG will only measure and number this vessel. The officer at Sturgeon Bay will be notified when a measurement and number are required. The radio information will be assigned by the Federal Communications Division, and it is assumed the shipbuilders may have information as to its owner.

b6
b7C

[redacted] suggested contact be maintained with the Coast Guard Office at Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, giving the name of [redacted] as the Detachment CO, and listing his telephone number as [redacted]
[redacted]

By communication dated August 19, 1972, the Milwaukee Division furnished the following information:

The Door County "Advocate", Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, had an article entitled, "Dreamboat is Word for Newly Built Purse Seiner", published August 15, 1972. This article advised the "MARGARET L" fishing vessel "combined the engineering talents of Rados Weston Corporation and the progressive ideas of Mr. ANDREW LOCOCO into what will result in the biggest, fastest, most reliable, most modern, and most beautiful purse seiner in the world today". According to the article, the vessel is to be launched Saturday, August 19, 1972, at 11:30 a.m., at Peterson Shipbuilders. The ship is 262 feet overall length, and will be equipped to store 2,000 tons of refrigerated tuna. The ship has a cruising speed of 17 knots, two Bladt 3,500-pound anchors housed in recessed wells, and is powered by two Fairbanks-Morse 3600 diesel engines. The vessel will, according to the article, extend her field of vision over 200 miles by relocating her fish lookout from the crow's nest to a ship-based helicopter. This vessel is considered to be the finest of its class and according to the article, should provide a profitable addition to America's tuna fishing fleet.

The following investigation was conducted at Long Beach, California, on June 6, 1972:

[redacted], 19 Pine, Long Beach, California, advised that a vessel under construction would require a builder's certificate issued by the Documentation Officer, Marine Inspection Office, Room 400, 135 West Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in order to operate the vessel to its home port. The vessel would be required to register at the home port and once registered, the record would be maintained by the Commandant, Merchant Vessel Documentation, USCG, 400 Seventh Street, Washington, D. C.

The following investigation was conducted at the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, by Special Clerk (SC) [redacted]:

b6
b7C

A review of the corporation records at the Department of State determined that on August 20, 1971, under registered number 26047, was filed incorporating papers for Margie L. Incorporated. These papers indicate that this corporation would have its principal office at Malacon Road, Kilometer 11.4, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, and [redacted] would be [redacted]. The purpose of the corporation was given as "to acquire, operate and manage fishing facilities and to buy, catch, sell, freeze, can, process and transport fish and fish products". It listed a total number of shares as 2,000 and indicated as the minimum amount of capital with which the corporation would commence as $1,000. The incorporators of Margie L. Incorporated are listed as [redacted] and [redacted] who are identified as [redacted]. The third incorporator is listed as [redacted].

A review of the 1971 city directory by SA [redacted] determined that the only attorney listed by the name of [redacted] is identified in the city directory as a member of [redacted].
